

Earlham Meeting

MIDWESTERN ASSOCIATION OF CHEMISTRY TEACHERS IN LIBERAL ARTS COLLEGES
Fourth Annual Meeting

TENTATIVE PROGRAM
October 28 and 29, 1955

EARLHAM COLLEGE, RICHMOND, INDIANA
(times are Central Daylight Saving)

Friday, October 28 P.M.

- 1:00 Registration, Dennis Hall Lobby
Short tours of the Science Building and the campus
- 3:00 Opening session of the Conference, Dennis Hall, Room 110
- 4:00* Discussion groups, room assignments will be announced
- 6:00 Dinner (complimentary) for conference members and their wives, Earlham Hall Dining Room
- 8:00 Address: James Thorp, Prof. of Geology and Soil Science,
Earlham College
"A Soil Scientist Views Australia"
- 9:15 Informal social gathering, President's home

Saturday, October 29 A.M.

- 9:00 "Research Activities in Small Colleges", Harry Lewis,
Vice President of the Paper Institute, Appleton, Wis.
- 9:30 "Soil Research at Earlham College", Ernest Wildman
Prof. of Chemistry, Earlham College
- 10:00* Coffee
- 10:15 Address: Wendell Stanley, Director of Virus Laboratory,
University of California
"Recent Chemical Studies on Viruses"
- 11:30 Discussion groups reconvene
- 12:45 Luncheon

Saturday, October 29 P.M.

- 1:30 Summary reports from discussion groups
Dennis Hall Room 110
- 3:00 Business meeting of the Association
- 4:00 Adjournment

* FOR WIVES

Friday, 4:00 p.m. A tea at the Strong's', 706 National Road West

Saturday, 10:00 a.m. Meet in Dennis Hall for trip to Hill Rose Company greenhouses