

Tentative Program

Friday, October 13, 1967

1:30 General Meeting and Lecture by Dr. William T. Lippincott, Ohio State University (Teaching Aids) or another speaker from AC₂ Teaching Aids Committee

3:30 Discussions Groups and "Short" Course Discussion Leader

1. NMR "Short" Course (Friday - Fundamentals)
(Saturday - Beginning Interpretation)
2. Discussion of Teaching Aids
(Meets Friday afternoon only)
3. Coordination Compounds
(Meets Saturday morning only)
4. Content of Advanced Inorganic Course
5. Organic Chemistry Laboratory
6. Physical Chemistry Laboratory Philip Kinsey
7. Analytical Instrumentation
8. Biochemistry in the Undergraduate Curriculum
9. Use of Paperbacks in General Chemistry
10. Foundation Programs for Support of Improvements in Chemical Education
(Meets Friday afternoon only)
11. Senior Research or Seminar
12. Advantages and Problems of New Academic Calendars

7:30 Address by Dr. Richard T. Arnold (Vice-President of Research - Mead Johnson and Company) - Pharmaceutical Chemistry or Academic Obsolence

Saturday, October 14, 1967

8:30 Lecture by Dr. John C. Bailar, University of Illinois
Coordination Compounds or Researches on the Borderline Between Inorganic and Organic Chemistry.

10:00 Discussion Groups and "Short" Course

